March 26, 2010 (Leesburg, VA)—Over 150 people attended Loudoun Youth Inc.'s Spring Auction which was held on March 13th at Creighton Model Home at Grenata. With an amazing array of auction items available, including a luxury European vacation, a Disney World Resort Family Adventure and many gift certificates to the area's finest restaurants, hotels and wineries, the evening raised approximately $10,000. The auction benefited Loudoun Youth Inc. which is Loudoun County's premier non-profit organization dedicated to supporting and developing programs that provide local teens positive out-of-school activities in safe environments.
